Public Participation at ICANN

Filiz Yilmaz

Snr Director, Participation and Engagement

CARTAGENA
no. 39   5 - 10 December 2010
DE INDIAS

Public Participation

Internet eco-system

Multi-stakeholder policy making ICANN fora

Public Participation

Community Building

Keep ICANN community engaged

Facilitate meaningful participation

Public Participation Committee (PPC)

Jean-Jacques Subrenat

Thomas Narten

Gonzalo Navarro

Vanda Scartezini

Katim Touray

Kuo-Wei Wu

Public Participation Committee (PPC)

Since 2009

Defining strategies and guidelines

Supervising a Public Participation program

Focus Points

- Meetings for the Next Decade
- Distance Communication Tools and Systems
- Holistic Review of Public Participation Processes
- Creating a Comprehensive Stakeholder Outreach and Engagement Strategy

Past work – Remote Participation

Since Nairobi (ICANN 37)

High and low bandwidth services
   Voice & video
   Chat & online forms for active participation

Past work – Meetings

Meetings for the Next Decade survey
Highlighting Hub City concept
Proposals are produced

CARTAGENA
no. 39   5 - 10 December 2010
ICANN DE INDIAS

Future work

Outreach to Internet communities
 Young people (universities)
 Technical Internet communities (RIRs)
 Cross-community collaboration
 "Under-involved" communities

Future work

Improving public comment
   Improved processes

Engaging Newcomers
   Fellowship Program
   NewComers Greeting/Mentors Team

Future work

Social media and Web 2.0 tools
    Enhancing public participation

Meetings for the next decade

PPC Community Update

Face to face with PPC

   Thursday 9 December 09:30 – 10:30

Join the discussion!

   ICANN meetings Hub City Concept

   Remote Participation and Future Tools

   The Public Comment Process

Thank You

One World

One Internet

Questions